

Christmas at The Ridge Series Devotional Day 3

Eight days later, when the baby was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel even before he was conceived.

Then it was time for their purification offering, as required by the law of Moses after the birth of a child; so his parents took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. The law of the Lord says, “If a woman’s first child is a boy, he must be dedicated to the LORD.” So they offered the sacrifice required in the law of the Lord—“either a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”

Luke 2:21-24

At The Ridge, our mission is to help people find and follow Jesus. As you read the next portion of this devotional, consider the FIND comments if you are exploring faith or helping others explore their faith. Use the FOLLOW section to help you take steps if you are currently following Jesus.

FIND:

Not everyone who calls themselves a Christian is actually following what Jesus said. What makes this difficult for you to accept?

FOLLOW:

Jesus died on the cross for you; he made a new agreement. Therefore, we no longer need to follow the law of Moses, which was established before Jesus. What church “laws” are you still holding on to?
