

Ridge Student Community | Role Description

RSC New Team Members

New team members learn the mission, vision, and values of RSC and understand how to connect with students relationally to help them take steps with God.

Responsibilities

An RSC New Team Member is responsible for:

- UNDERSTANDING the mission, vision, and values of RSC.
- LEARNING the expectations and needed skills to serve in RSC.
- DISCERNING if RSC is the best fit for the individual to serve or if there is better area to serve at The Ridge.

Expectations

- A new team member must attend a service at The Ridge Regularly.
- A new team member must like teenagers.
- A new team member must have gone through a First Look, Initial Interview, and First Serve.
- A new team member must undergo a multi state wide criminal background check.
- A new team member must complete the training checklist outlined for their first 90 days.
- At the end of 90 days, a new team member will either be moved into a RSC Leader role or will be connected with a different area of serving at The Ridge.

